To All Strategic Partners

STATUS UPDATE ON THE AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROGRAM PIPELINE

The State Department for Housing and Urban Development in its Call for Applications process identified Strategic Partners who are interested in the projects available in the AHP Pipeline, which is located on <https://bomayangu.go.ke/Ahp>. Through the Call for Application Process the following projects are now at advance stages of engagement with Strategic Partners who have shown interest in the projects.

1. Starehe and Shauri Moyo A & B are now at advance stages of negotiations
2. Makongeni and Mavoko have now received firm proposals towards the development of affordable housing units.
3. Under the Civil Servants Mortgage Scheme, The Nakuru project is under negotiations with a potential developer.

This is to therefore inform you of the status of the above projects and to draw your attention to the other outstanding projects which are available in the AHP pipeline for engagement with Strategic Partners interested in undertaking developments in the parcels of land.

Should there be interest in undertaking projects on the parcels of land please reply to this letter in both hard copy to the Principal Secretary, State Department for Housing and Urban Development, 6th Floor Ardhi House and a soft copy to procurement@housingandurban.go.ke.

The responses should reach the State Department by 30th November 2020.
